

Transformer Cabinet Mural Project 2014
Artist: Stan Scott
Location: 1213 W Elizabeth—behind Road 34

“The Call of the Wild”

The transformer is a depiction of a bear in a phone booth, visually representing the common phrase, the call of the wild. This is only fitting in a town like Fort Collins, with its passion for the outdoors and pride in the foothills that make up its own backyard. The setting will feature Horsetooth rock and the flora and fauna of the region. This fun, whimsical image should be a hit for both young and old.

East

North

West

South

Top