

Transformer Cabinet Mural Project 2009
Artist: Lisa Cameron
Location: behind 632 S. College

Since some of my favorite subjects to paint come from my surroundings, gardening at my studio above Horsetooth reservoir is very inspiring for me.

For this design idea I propose painting a mixture of my garden favorites: Hummingbirds, Columbine, and Prickly Pear.

The subjects will be painted in impressionist style on top of splashed layers of color.
