

Transformer Cabinet Mural Project 2010
Artist: Frank Stanley
Location: behind 622 S. Mason

The idea behind my mural concept is simple: make something cool with lots of colors. The transformer project expands on my continuing experiments with color and car (pinstriping) paint. The concepts are based on several themes I have used before: sunsets, abstracts, stylized flowers, and love.

