

Soapstone Prairie Natural Area

Mid-June Plants

Photoglass

Two-grooved milkvetch

native

abundant right now

Photoglass

Wild onion

Allium textile

native

edible in small quantities

Photoglass

Sidebells Penstemon

Penstemon secundiflorus

native

flowers on one side of stalk, hence the name

Photoglass

Alpine wallflower

Erysimum capitatum

native

Skyblue Penstemon

Penstemon angustifolius

native

truly sky blue color

Photoglass

Fuzzytongue Penstemon

Penstemon eriantherus

native

large, showy, lavender flowers

Photogragss

Broomrape

Aphyllon fasciculatum

native

very small, attractive flowers. Parasitic on fringed sage (Parasitic plants have no green leaves)

Photogragss

Fringed Sage

Artemisia frigida

native

lovely gray-green, soft foliage, sage smell

Photogragss

Britton's skullcap

Scutellaria brittonii

native

look for me close to the start of the Lindenmeier Trail

Ernie Marx & photogragss

Calcareous cryptantha

Oreocarya thysiflora

native

husky plant with small flowers

Photogragss

Largeflower Daisy

Townsendia grandiflora

native

Photogragss

Mountain bladderpod

Lesquerella montana

native

common in spring