

Water Efficiency Workshop for Colorado Plumbing

Wed., October 15, 8 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
Rocky Mountain Innosphere, 320 E. Vine Dr.

This half-day workshop is an opportunity to learn about the latest building practices, technology and regulations that promote water-efficient plumbing.

Why attend?

- Learn about local water conservation programs and incentives
- Hear the latest about Colorado's graywater regulations
- Find out about high performance construction, including LEED, ENERGY STAR® and WaterSense, and Colorado's 2014 WaterSense fixture legislation
- Participate in a hands-on demonstration of efficient hot water design with international water expert Gary Klein

Who should attend

Plumbing companies, engineers, suppliers, building department officials, facility and property managers, housing officials, developers, specifiers, remodelers

Register

- Register online at PHCCColorado.org by clicking on the Events and Education tab
PHCC members: $10 Non-members: $20
- Light breakfast will be served
- For more information, contact Laurie D'Audney at ldaudney@fcgov.com

Water Efficiency Workshop for Colorado Plumbing

October 15, 2014, 8 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Rocky Mountain Innosphere, 320 E. Vine Dr.

AGENDA

- 8-8:10 Breakfast
- 8:10-8:20 Welcome and Introductions
Amelia Nuding, Western Resource Advocates
- 8:20-8:40 Utility Programs and Incentives
Laurie D'Audney, Fort Collins Utilities
Ruth Quade, City of Greeley Water and Sewer
Lindsey Bashline, City of Loveland Water and Power
- 8:40-9:10 Graywater Regulations Update
Melanie Criswell, CO Dept. of Public Health and the Environment (CDPHE)
Kye Lehr, CO Dept. of Regulatory Agencies (DORA)
- 9:10-10:10 High Performance Construction - LEED, Energy Star, WaterSense
Alicia Marrs, WaterSense Program, Environmental Protection Agency
Carissa Sawyer, EnergyLogic Inc.
- 10:10-10:25 Break
- 10:25-12:25 Plumbing Design Workshop
Gary Klein, Gary Klein Associates
- 12:25-12:30 Wrap up & Program Evaluation
Amelia Nuding, Western Resource Advocates