Horsetooth with Sunflowers and Aspens

Horsetooth rock peaks out of a blue mountain range with purple hills below. On the left are tall sunflowers; on the right, a stand of green leafed aspen trees. A storm cloud builds over the mountain range, with many more cumulonimbus floating in the blue sky. Colored grasses grow in the foreground. Aspen branches and clouds reach up to cover the top of the transformer box. Stray aspen leaves and sunflower petals will dot the mural, as well as a bird or two, soaring in the sky.
