The USA Pro Challenge will return to Fort Collins on August 22 bringing some of the world's best cyclists from around the world to your doorstep and resulting in some road closures that could impact you.

The sixth stage of the seven-stage race starts at 11:35 a.m. in Loveland at The Ranch Events Complex before going through Windsor, Loveland, up to Rist Canyon and then finishing in Old Town Fort Collins. Cyclists are expected to arrive in Fort Collins around 1:30 p.m. that day and reach the finish line on Mountain Avenue by 1:45 (women's race) and 3:30 p.m. (men's race)

STREET CLOSURES IN FORT COLLINS INCLUDE:

FRIDAY NIGHT CLOSURES:

Portions of Mountain Ave and nearby surrounding streets in Old Town will be closed for start of Set-up of the Finish Line

RACE DAY CLOSURES:

Fort Collins/ Horsetooth Reservoir

- » 1 p.m. - CR 50 E, CR 21, Overland Trail will be closed from Bellvue to the intersection of Overland and Mulberry.
- » 1:10 p.m. Mulberry Ave will be closed at Overland to College. Cross traffic will be allowed to cross between women's and men's races if time allows.
- » 2:15 p.m. Overland trail South of Mulberry to CR 42 C, as well as CR 42 C will be closed until the peloton passes.
- » 1:30 – 3:45 p.m. for the downtown Finish College Ave. will be closed from Mulberry to LaPorte St.

*All times are approximate and dependent on race status. All other closures along the route will be a "rolling enclosure"- streets will close as the lead Colorado State Patrol vehicle arrives at an intersection and remain closed until the last State Patrol car passes- an estimated time of 20-40 minutes dependent on race status.
