Subject: Recommendation on Green Building Code Amendments

The Economic Advisory Commission (EAC) has reviewed the Green Building Code Amendments, including the benefit and cost analysis, and received several updates from staff. The EAC, by unanimous approval (six in favor, three absent), makes the following recommendation to City Council:

The Economic Advisory Commission has evaluated the benefit and cost analysis of the Green Building Code Amendments and recommends the proposed building code green amendments for residential and commercial construction be adopted by Council. In addition, the EAC recommends that staff continue to push the envelope to make Fort Collins a leader in this area.
