

Downtown Restroom

By Joe McGrane / 2017

Art concept for the site.

As part of the City of Fort Collins Art in Public Places program, Fort Collins artist Joe McGrane has designed a public art project for the west side of the new restroom located at Oak Street and the Montezuma Fuller Alley.

Artist Joe McGrane working on his glass and mirror mosaic for the Downtown Restroom.

The artwork, 5 ALLEY VIEWS, is designed to provide interest and identity to the restroom façade and add a playful art element to the new alley landscape. It consists of a 5-foot diameter radiating tile mosaic with five convex mirrors framed by a brick band. Reflected images change relative to the position of the viewer and radius of mirrors.
