EMERGENCY RULES AND REGULATIONS No. 2020-03

To all persons take notice:

That for the protection of life, health, safety and property as affected by reason of the Novel Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19), which resulted in my declaration of a "local emergency" under the authority of Chapter 2, Article IX of the Code of the City of Fort Collins, (the "City") and which declaration of local emergency was filed with the City Clerk and with the Colorado Division of Emergency Management on March 13, 2020, I have hereby established, under the authority of Sec. 2-671(a)(6)a, the following rules and regulations:

1. Commencing on March 19, 2020, and until further notice, I am suspending fares for all Transfort bus routes within the City, including FLEX and MAX routes. I am also suspending fares for all Dial-a-Ride trips. All persons may use these City facilities free of charge.
2. Nothing in this emergency regulation shall prevent the City from utilizing such other legal mechanisms as are available to it, including, without limitation, the Fire Code, the Building Code, Chapter 20, Article I of the City Code and/or the Uniform Code for abatement of dangerous buildings in cases of emergency.

Pursuant to Section 2-671(e) of the City Code, the rules and regulations set forth herein shall be disseminated to local radio and television stations and to a newspaper having a general circulation within the City. A knowing violation of these rules and regulations shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 1-15 of the City Code.

19th
DATED this _____ day of March, A.D. 2020.
