PROGRAM MISSION

To generate enthusiasm, increase access, and promote participation in the game of golf among junior golfers in the local community through City of Fort Collins Golf Courses.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

The program is available to junior golfers (ages 5-17) who want to participate, however preference is given to full-time residents of Fort Collins and neighboring communities.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

Upon acceptance into the program, participants will be awarded vouchers, which may be redeemed at any City of Fort Collins Golf Course for greens fees & passes, lessons & clinics, rental clubs & equipment, and range use.

ANNUAL PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Scholarships are awarded on a rolling basis in accordance with contributions to the fund. 10% of all contributions are held by the fund for future youth golf initiatives. The fund maintains a minimum balance of $1,000 at all times. Scholarships will not exceed $165 per individual, per year.

ABOUT WILBUR & MARGUERITE GARFIELD

Lifelong lovers of golf, Wilbur & Marguerite Garfield enjoyed the game together, seeking to play a course in every state in the U.S. Wilbur was also instrumental in the startup of the Golf Advisory Board and Collindale Golf Course. The Garfield family is pleased to support the youth golf scholarship, knowing it will enable young people to learn and play their favorite sport.
