

2021 Human Relations Award Nomination Form

Nominee Information:

Every year, the Human Relations Awards recognize individuals and organizations in our community that promote diversity, equity and inclusion in the City of Fort Collins. The 2021 awards will be especially significant as we continue to navigate the extraordinary challenges of an ongoing global pandemic and a heightened consciousness of social justice issues.

Please review the four categories of Human Relations Awards below. Past awardees are not eligible for this year's recognition. Although there is not a residency requirement, the impact of the nominee's work should be focused on the City of Fort Collins and/or Larimer County.

Criteria for nominees include (but are not limited to):

- Advocates for diversity, equity and inclusion in our community
- Positively impacts an underrepresented population in our community
- Serves as a role model by motivating others to effect positive change in underserved communities
- Advances the goal of making Fort Collins a safe and welcoming community for all

The deadline for submitting nomination forms is Sunday, October 24, 2021.
