FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2019 Fourth of July Parade Winner Announced

Over 50 entries participated in The City of Fort Collins 2019 Fourth of July Parade. Thousands of people lined scenic Mountain Avenue on a perfect Independence Day morning. World War II veteran, Curt Cameron, served as the parade's Grand Marshal. Parade entries included: Poudre Fire Authority with a piece of a World Trade Center Beam, Colorado State University Athletics, Fort Collins Police Services, Larimer County Search and Rescue, Veteran's Plaza of Northern Colorado, City of Fort Collins Parks and Recreation and the City of Fort Collins Utilities Department.

Parade entries were judged this year by City of Fort Collins Mayor – Wade Troxell, City Manager – Darin Atteberry, Mayor Pro Tem – Kristin Stephens and Parks and Recreation Board Chair – Jessica MacMillan. Based on patriotism, creativity and enthusiasm, this year's parade winner was the Veteran's Plaza of Northern Colorado.

Congratulations to the winning entry and thank you to all who participated in this year's parade.
