

VOLUNTEER JOB DESCRIPTION Adopt-A-Natural Area

Overview:

Thanks to the citizens of City of Fort Collins, the Natural Areas Department has conserved more than 43,000 acres. Citizens can continue to support conservation efforts by taking part in the the “Adopt-A-Natural Area” program. This program provides opportunities for citizens to take an active role in restoration efforts through stewardship. Adopters agree to care for a natural area for one year by picking up trash and reporting maintenance issues. This program is great for families and groups.
