

January

- Prepare Sophomore Transitions materials and schedule
- Renting 101 class.
- RA training
- Transfer student training sessions

March

- Off-Campus Jeopardy sessions offered in the Residence Halls
- Second e-newsletter to RH residents
- Decks of cards distributed in dining halls
- Survey for Sophomore Transitions program impact

May

- Program surveys conducted followed by preparation and planning
- Community norms advertising campaign

July

- Transfer student training sessions

September

- Community norms advertising campaign

November

- Coordination of Fall Clean-Up. Matching over 1200 students with local residents for yard clean-up projects

February

- Off-Campus Life Student Handbook and e-newsletter to all Residence Hall residents
- Off-Campus Jeopardy presentations in Residence Halls and at Getting to Year 2 Conference
- Housing Fair.
- Renting 101 class
- Article on off-campus transition in Parents & Families e-newsletter

April

- Off-Campus Jeopardy sessions offered in the Residence Halls
- Coordination of CSUnity resident yard clean-up projects
- Community norms advertising campaign
- Transfer student training sessions

June

- Transfer student training sessions

August

- Community Welcome occurs in high noise complaint neighborhoods surrounding campus
- Transfer student training sessions
- Community norms advertising campaign

October

- Fall Clean-Up coordination and preparation

December

- Preparation for Sophomore Transitions programming

Year-Round Programming & Projects

- Party Partners classes
- Party Registration
- Student Housing Action Plan

Sophomore Transitions Programming

Intensive outreach and education campaign directed at the freshman class to ease the transition off campus for students and the broader community.

off-campus life

Thinking About Moving Off Campus?

Are you thinking about where to live next fall? This is the time when students are trying to decide whether to move off campus or remain in the residence halls for another year. Should you decide to move into the neighborhoods of Fort Collins, Off-Campus Life (OCL) is here to help you successfully make that transition. Below is a list of opportunities to consider when planning a move off campus.

Important Dates:

- Coordination of Outreach and Education campaigns
- Two part e-newsletter for RH residents developed
- Provide resource and information training to RH RA's
- U+2 ad campaign
- Renting 101 class offered

- Residence Hall Jeopardy sessions
- Second e-newsletter to RH residents
- Decks of Cards distributed in dining halls
- Survey for Sophomore Transitions program impact

- Community norms advertising campaigns

Sophomore Transitions officially begins.

- Off-Campus Life Student Handbooks distributed to all Residence Hall residents
- Off-Campus Jeopardy sessions presented at Getting to Year 2 conference
- Housing Fair- one stop location for rental housing information
- Renting 101 class offered
- Article on off-campus transition in Parents & Families e-newsletter

- Coordinate CSUnity residential projects to build connection to neighborhoods and residents
- Community norms advertising campaigns

- Preparation for Community Welcome in neighborhoods with high noise complaint rates surrounding campus.

