February 2009

February Black History Month. For a schedule of local events call CSU Black Student Services 970-491-5781.

February 2 Candlemas Day (Christian, Wiccan & Pagan) is a purifying ceremony to let go of the old and bring in the new (with the light.) In Christianity the day commemorates when Mary took Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem 40 days after his birth. It has also long been a day for weather predictions: “If Candlemas be fair and clear, two winters you will have this year,” leading to the celebration of Groundhog day which originated in Germany.

February 2 Groundhog Day (USA and Canada) is based on an old belief that if the sun shines on Candlemas Day, or if the groundhog sees its shadow when it emerges from its den, we will experience six more weeks of winter.

February 2 El Dia De Candelaria (Mexico) marks the official end of the Christmas season.

February 9 Tu B’Shevat (Judiasm) is the New Year of Trees.

February 14 Saint Valentine’s Day (USA, Canada, Europe and Latin America) is based on the exchange of gifts that convey affection and love. The history of this holiday cannot be identified with any one origin with certainty. One version of the story tells of a priest named Valentine who would secretly marry people forbidden to wed by law. The Emperor believed that he could form a larger and stronger army if men remained single and had no family ties. Valentine was arrested and beheaded on February 14th. Because he was a champion of love, he became known as the patron saint of lovers.

February 15 Nirvana Day commemorates the death of Siddhartha Gautama, the Buddha.

February 16 President’s Day (USA) was originally in honor of Presidents Washington and Lincoln and now serves as a reminder of the contributions of past and present presidents.

February 24 Shrove Tuesday (Christian) the last day before Lent. Many people celebrate this day or days prior to it by having carnivals such as Mardi Gras held in France and Louisiana and by festivals in Germany and Latin America. In England it became known as “Shrove Tuesday” because people went to church to “shrove” or “confess” their sins.

February 25 Lent, a period of fasting and prayer, begins on Ash Wednesday, 40 days before Easter Sunday.
Feb.26-Mar.1  Ayyam-I-Ha  (Intercalary Days.) The four days of the year (five days in leap year) which fall between the eighteenth and nineteenth month of the Bahai Calendar. These days are set aside for hospitality, gift-giving, and service.

March  2009

March  Women’s History Month is to recognize women of all races, ages, cultures, ethnic traditions and ways of life. Women are honored who have participated in history by living and sharing their lives with others, and by so doing, have contributed to our shared history. For a schedule of local events call CSU Office of Women’s Programs and Studies 970-491-6384 and The Women’s Resource Center 970-407-7034.

Mar.2-20  Period of Fasting, a time when all healthy adult Bahai’s fast from sunrise to sunset. This fasting period ends at sunset on March 20th which is the beginning of the Naw Ruz (New Year’s) Celebration.

March 8  International Women’s Day commemorates the 1908 women’s march in New York City for suffrage and against child labor.

March 9-16  Passover or Pesach is held each Spring to recall the Jews’ deliverance out of slavery in Egypt, circa 1300 BCE. It is a celebration of freedom. The first two nights of Passover a ritual Seder meal is eaten and the story is retold and passed down from generation to generation. The holiday lasts eight days during which time no bread or leavened food is eaten.

March 10  Purim (Judiasm) or the Feast of Lots recalls the defeat by Queen Esther of the plan to slaughter all of the Persian Jews, circa 400 BCE. During Purim, the Book of Esther is read in the synagogue service. It is a joyous holiday during which gifts of food, carnivals, and plays are customary.

March 11  Holi (Hinduism) is a spring festival. It is a carnival-like celebration featuring bright colors, bonfires and pilgrimages. It is dedicated to Krishna or Kama, the God of Pleasure.

March 17  Saint Patrick’s Day, the national holiday of Ireland, is the anniversary of the death of Patrick, an Italian slave who converted the Irish people to Christianity in the fifth century.

March 20  Spring Equinox or the first day of Spring.

March 21  Naw Ruz (Bahai) is the New Year, a celebration of hospitality and rejoicing. Work and school are suspended.

March 21-22  Denver March Pow Wow is the oldest and one of the largest in the country. It is held the third weekend in March. Located in the Denver Coliseum, it is an opportunity for people to see hundreds of dancers from throughout the USA and Canada compete for honors in a multitude of categories. Native arts and crafts vendors are stationed around the coliseum perimeter, offering unique items from as far away as Alaska, real maple sugar from the Ojibwe Nations, handmade birchbark baskets, quill and bead work, fine jewelry, and much more. It is a rare opportunity for those in this area to experience the diversity of the Native American people. The Denver March Pow Wow is officially observed as the beginning of the yearly pow wow season.

March 27
Mesha Sakranti (Hinduism, date approximate) is the vernal equinox and the beginning of the new year in the Hindu solar calendar.

March 31
Cesar Chavez Day was declared a Colorado state holiday in recognition of the valuable contributions of Chavez. The day symbolizes the ongoing struggle for the rights of farm workers, as reflected in the nonviolent and equitable attributes of Chavez. The festivities provide awareness and knowledge for the community through the arts, food, and educational experiences. For a schedule of local events call CSU Campus Activities 970-491-6444.

June 15
Corpus Christi (Christian), in honor of the Eucharist.

June 19
Juneteenth is an African American celebration that honors the day in 1865 when slaves in Texas and Louisiana finally heard they were free, two months after the end of the Civil War. June 19, therefore, became the day of independence for thousands of African Americans.

Father’s Day (USA). The idea for creating a day for children to honor their fathers began in Spokane, Washington. A woman by the name of Sonora Smart Dodd thought of the idea for Father’s Day while listening to a Mother’s Day sermon in 1909. Having been raised by her father, after her mother died, she wanted her father to know how special he was to her. Sonora’s father was born in June, so she chose to hold the first Father’s Day celebration in Spokane, Washington on the 19th of June, 1910. In 1972, President Richard Nixon established a permanent national observance of Father’s Day to be held on the third Sunday of June.

Summer Solstice is the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere.

Midsummer Eve Festivals (Northern Europe). Pagan in origin, celebrated at the height of the brilliant northern summer before the first harvest, this has always been one of the most popular festivals in Northern Europe, especially in Sweden.
June 29  GLBT PrideFest (USA). This event grew out of the 1969 Stonewall Rebellion, when patrons of a gay New York nightclub, The Stonewall Inn, resisted police attempts to raid the club. For a schedule of local events call CSU GLBT Student Services 970-491-4342 and the Lambda Community Center 970-221-3247.

July 2009

July  Khao Pansa marks the beginning of the Buddhist Lent. It is the preferred day for Buddhist men in some countries to be ordained as monks. It is celebrated in the full moon of the eighth lunar month.

July 4  Independence Day (USA). The Declaration of Independence was signed on this day in 1776. This document proclaimed the independence of the thirteen colonies from allegiance to the British Crown and the dissolution of all political ties with Great Britain.

July 9  Martyrdom of the Bab (Bahai). School and work are suspended.

July 30  Tisha B-Av, the Fast of the Ninth of Av, is a Jewish day of mourning that commemorates the many tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people, primarily the destruction of the 1st and 2nd Temples in Jerusalem. This is a day of fasting and traditional mourning practices are observed.

August 2009

August 4  Neighborhood Night Out (USA) begun in 1998, is a fun and low-key way to fight crime by meeting your neighbors through a barbecue, ice cream social or any other function. For more information on Ft. Collins Neighborhood Night Out events call the Neighborhood Resources Office 970-224-6046.

August 5  Raksha Bandhan, (Hinduism). In the days when gods warred with demons, the sister of Indra, (the King of the Heavens), tied a silken bracelet or charm (a rakhi) around his wrist. Because of this rakhi, it is said that the King won back his heavenly abode from his enemies. In the north and west parts of India, this event is called Raksha Bandhan; in the area around Deli, it is called Salone. But all over India, it represents the tying together in bonds of affection and protectiveness of brother and sisters.

August 15-16  Crow Fair is the largest encampment of teepees in the U.S. It is a week long celebration of Native Culture with a pow wow, parades, contests, and entertainment. Crow Fair takes place at Crow Agency in Montana on the third weekend of August each year.

August 15-16  Santa Fe Indian Market is over 70 years old and is the largest and most prestigious gathering of Native artists from across the U.S. It is held the third weekend in August. Thousands of tourists and art collectors visit the Market to see and buy the best of Native art, sculpture, jewelry, and other items. Artists are accepted by invitation only. There are a number of Pueblo Feast days which are open to the public. Check the website for dates and protocol: www.santefe.org

Aug 22-Sept 20 Ramadan is the holiest period in the Islamic year and is held during the entire 9th lunar month of the year. This was the month in which the Qur'an was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad. It is a time during which almost all Muslims over the age of 12 are expected to fast from sunup to sundown.

September 2009

Sept 15-Oct 15 National Hispanic Heritage Month. The Proclamation for the United States of America to celebrate the contribution of Hispanics to our communities and country started with the observance of Hispanic Heritage Week (public law 90-498, approved September 17, 1968, 90th Congress.) It wasn't until August 17, 1988 that the 100th Congress authorized the designation of National Hispanic Heritage Month. For a schedule of local events call CSU El Centro Student Services 970-491-5722.

September 7 Navajo Nation Fair is held in Window Rock, Arizona, within the lands of the Navajo Reservation. Festival-goers from the large reservation, as well as members of other tribal groups, gather together for this event.

September 7 Labor Day (USA and Canada). The first Monday in September is celebrated with picnics and parades honoring workers in the two countries.

September 16 Mexican Independence Day commemorates the 1910 revolution which ended dictatorship. The Independence Day festivities in Mexico begin at midnight on the day of the holiday. At that time, in villages, towns, and cities all over Mexico, the people gather at the "zocalo" or public square. There is a feeling of excitement in the air. Red, white and green banners, Mexico's national colors, are hung from buildings and lights are strung from street posts. There are bands playing and people throw confetti and wave flags. At midnight the president (or in small towns a local public official) reads the "Grito de Dolores" of Father Hidalgo (Don Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, the organizer and principal leader of the rebellion against the Spaniards), which was first presented in 1810. The people chant the "Grito" after the president. He then rings the independence bell. As soon as this happens fireworks light up the sky and the dancing and singing continues. For a schedule of local events call CSU El Centro Student Services 970-491-5722.

September 19 International Day of Peace was first observed by the United Nations General Assembly in 1982.

September 19 Rosh Hashanah is the Jewish New Year and is the beginning of the High Holidays. It is the anniversary of the completion of creation, about 5760 years ago. At Rosh Hashanah services, the Shofar (ram’s horn) is sounded announcing the New Year and awakening Jews to remember God’s commandments. The 10 days from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur are called the Days of Awe. This is a time of reflection, remembrance, prayer, and repentance.

September 20
Eid al-Fitr (Islam) is the first day following Ramadan. It is a time of rejoicing. Houses are decorated and Muslims buy gifts for relatives.

September 22
Autumnal Equinox or the first day of Fall.

September 26
National Native American Day (USA). Although not an official government holiday, most American Indian organizations and tribes do observe this holiday.

September 28
Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is the most solemn day of the year. It is a day of fasting and prayers for forgiveness.

TBA
Oktoberfest, locally sponsored by Eyeopeners Kiwanis, is modeled after Oktoberfest in Germany. The blending of the German Oktoberfest with Americanized style has been a happy one. Pageantry, brew, bratwurst, and entertainment comprise this annual event, held in Old Town Fort Collins.

Sept. TBA
Colorado State University Diversity Conference, an annual event open to the entire community. For a schedule of events call CSU Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity 970-491-7525 or www.oecd.colostate.edu.

October 2008

October
Boun Ok Pansa marks the end of Buddhist Lent. It is at the end of the rainy season.

October 3-9
Sukkot or the Feast of Booths is an eight-day harvest festival, a joyous time of thanksgiving. Many Jews build little “huts” (or “sukkahs”) in their backyards and eat meals there to commemorate the huts Jews built in the wilderness during their 40-year journey after leaving Egypt (also harvesters lived in huts).

October 11
Simchat Torah (Judaism) is a day of rejoicing in Torah, the book of God’s law. On this day, the last chapters of the Torah are read, completing the year’s reading. And on this day, the first chapters are also read, beginning the cycle again.

October 11
National Coming Out Day (USA). On October 11, 1987, half a million people marched on Washington for gay and lesbian equality. This was the second such demonstration in our nation’s capitol and the first display of the NAMES Project Quilt, remembering those who have died from AIDS. One measure of the march’s success was the number of organizations that were founded as a result including the National Latino/a Gay and Lesbian Organization (LLEGO) and AT&T’s GLBT employee group, LEAGUE. The momentum continued four months after this extraordinary march as more than 100 gay, lesbian, and transgendered activists from around the country gathered in Manassas, VA, about 25 miles outside of Washington, D.C. Recognizing that the GLBT community often reacted defensively to anti-gay actions, they came up with the idea of a national day to celebrate coming out and chose the anniversary of that march on Washington to mark it. For a schedule of local events call CSU GLBT Student Services 970-491-4342 and the Lambda Community Center 970-221-3247.

October 12  National Indigenous People's Day. In 1992, drums from across the USA and time zones coordinated ceremonies and observances at 12 p.m. to celebrate and honor 500 years of resistance and the survival of North American Indigenous people. From that day to the present Native Americans observe October 12 as Indigenous People's Day, not Columbus Day.

October 12  Columbus Day (USA) recognizes the encounter of the New World in 1492 by Christopher Columbus.

October 17  Diwali (Hinduism) is the prettiest festival celebrated in India, a five day Festival of Lights to celebrate Rama and Sita's homecoming in the Ramayana. It signifies the victory of good over evil. The festival is the time for family reunion. Women indulge in making all kinds of sweets and children enjoy themselves with fireworks. It is a custom to have a bath at dawn, wear new clothes, the lighting of oil lamps and bursting of firecrackers. The first day is Dhan Trayaodashi; the second day Naraak Chaturdashi; the third day is Lakshmi Poojan on which people worship Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth, and businessmen keep their shops shut as a symbol of protecting wealth. The fourth day is Bali Pratipada.

October 20  Birth of the Bab (the Gate of God, Bahai), the forerunner of Baha'u'llah. School and work are suspended.

October 31  Halloween (USA), the evening before All Saints or All-Hallows Day, is informally observed with masquerading, pumpkin carving, and “trick or treat” gathering.

November 2009

November  National Native American Month. For a schedule of local events call CSU Native American Student Services 970-491-1332.

November 1  All Saints' Day is a Christian holiday observed in France, Germany, Italy, and Spain, which commemorates all the saints and martyrs who do not have a dedicated special day. It is obligatory for Roman Catholics and is also known as All Hallows Day.

November 2  Dia de los Muertos (All Saints' Day) is a national holiday in Mexico and is also celebrated in parts of the USA. Mexicans regard this annual holiday as a happy occasion that reunites them with the souls of loved ones. This two-day celebration honors the souls of dead children on November 1st and honors the souls of older relatives and friends on November 2nd. Families decorate tombs in the graveyard and home altars with toys, favorite foods, flowers, bread figures, incense burners, and elaborately fashioned candlesticks. On the morning of the second day people gather in graveyards and serenade the spirits with brass bands and mariachi music. The dead are never forgotten because once a year they are honored during this annual holiday. The last day is Bhaubeej, when the sister asks the Lord for the well-being of her brother, who is her Protector. In return, the brother bestows the sister with gifts. For a schedule of local events call CSU International Student Services 970-491-5917.

November 11  Veteran's Day (USA) is in honor of veterans of the armed services and in commemoration of the armistice that ended World War I in 1918. In 1954 it was renamed from Armistice Day and given the added significance of honoring veterans of all wars.

November 12  Birth of Baha’u’llah, the Prophet founder of the Bahai faith. School and work are suspended.

November 26  Day of the Covenant (the Feast of the Appointment of the Center of the Covenant, Bahai) celebrates the day that Baha’u’llah’s son, Abdu’l-Baha, became the Center of the Covenant.

November 26  Thanksgiving (USA). The first Thanksgiving was celebrated by people of the Wampanog Tribe and the Pilgrims of Plymouth Colony in 1621.

November 27  Eid al-Adha (the Feast of Sacrifice or Day of Sacrifice) occurs during the 12th month of the Islamic year. This is the season of the Haj (pilgrimage to Mecca). It recalls the day when Abraham intended to follow the instructions of God and sacrifice his son Isaac.

November 28  Ascension of Abdul-Baha (Bahai).

December 2009

December 1  World AIDS Day has become an annual day of recognition of AIDS—to remember those who have died, to acknowledge the need for continued commitment to care for those who are HIV/AIDS positive and to support the research to find a cure. For a schedule of local events call Northern Colorado AIDS Project 970-484-4469.

December 8  Bodhi Day celebrates the Buddha’s enlightenment in 596 BCE.

December 10  International Human Rights Day, established by the United Nations in 1948, commemorates the anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
December 12  Our Lady of Guadalupe Day (Mexico) is a major celebration in Mexico that honors the "Dark Virgin of Guadalupe", the Republic's Patron Saint. The "Dark Virgin" is comparable to the European "Virgin Mother."

Dec. 12-19  Hanukkah or the Festival of Lights is an eight-day festival recalling the war fought by the Maccabees in the cause of religious freedom and the rededication of the Temple after recapturing it from the Syrians. Each evening candles are lit on the “menorah” (candleabra), adding one candle each night. Hanukkah is a time for playing games (“dreidel” or a spinning top is a popular Hanukkah game) and singing, for visiting and for giving gifts. Originally a minor Jewish holy day, it has become more important in recent years.

Dec. 16-25  Las Posadas (Mexico) includes processions and parties reenacting Joseph and Mary’s journey to Bethlehem.

December 18  Al-Hijra/Muharram (Islam) is the Muslim New Year, beginning the first of the lunar month.

December 21  Winter Solstice or the first day of Winter. This is the shortest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere.

December 25  Christmas (Christian) is the day associated with Jesus’ birth. Celebrated on December 25 by Western churches and on January 7 the following year by Eastern Orthodox churches.

Dec. 26-Jan.1  Kwanzaa is an African-American holiday started by Dr. Maulana Karenga, an African world scholar, in 1966. It is based on the agricultural celebrations of Africa called “the first fruits” celebrations which are times of harvest, gathering, reverence, commemoration, recommitment and celebration. Therefore, Kwanzaa is a time for achievements, reverence for the Creator and creation, commemoration of the past, recommitment to cultural ideals and celebration of the good. Kwanza, a Swahili word, means “first”. Kwanzaa, spelled with the double vowel at the end of the word, refers to the holiday.

NOTE: Kwanzaa is a cultural holiday, not a religious one, thus available to and practiced by Africans of all religious faiths.

December 31  New Year’s Eve.
