

WELCOME

Northside Neighborhoods Historical Celebration

AGENDA

- 6:00-6:10 Mix & Mingle
- 6:10-6:15 Introduction
- 6:15-6:45 Presentation: History of the Northside Neighborhoods
- 6:45-7:00 Data Collection & Project Kickoff
- 7:00-7:30 Open House / Reception

NEIGHBORHOOD PROJECTS

PROJECT ID	DESCRIPTION	TIMING	STATUS
A	Brewery wayfinding signs in Buckingham	Summer 2016
B	Transfort bus stop improvement at Vine/Alta Vista	Fall 2015	Ready for construction
C	Lemay push-button pedestrian signal at Streets Facility	Fall 2015	Ready for construction
D	Lemay new sidewalk at Walmart	Fall 2015	Complete
E	Lemay interim sidewalk between Lincoln Ave and Buckingham St	Fall 2016
F	Gateway/interpretive signage (entry monuments) in all neighborhoods	Fall 2016
G	Park improvements at Streets Facility	Summer 2016
H	Signage addressing cut-through impacts in Buckingham	Winter 2015	Complete
I	1st Street new sidewalk between Lincoln Ave and Buckingham St	Fall 2015	Complete
I	3rd Street new sidewalk between Lincoln Ave and Buckingham St	Fall 2015	Ready for construction
J	Alley improvements in Buckingham	Summer 2016

NEIGHBORHOOD MONUMENTS

The adopted Lincoln Corridor Plan includes new monuments at entryways to the neighborhoods. Monuments could include elements such as the neighborhood name, artwork, and potential backlighting.

The Neighborhood Advisory Committee will be working with a selected artist to customize monuments for each neighborhood.

Example concept from the Lincoln Corridor Plan

Preliminary Monument Schedule

NEIGHBORHOOD HISTORY: Sugar Beet Factory

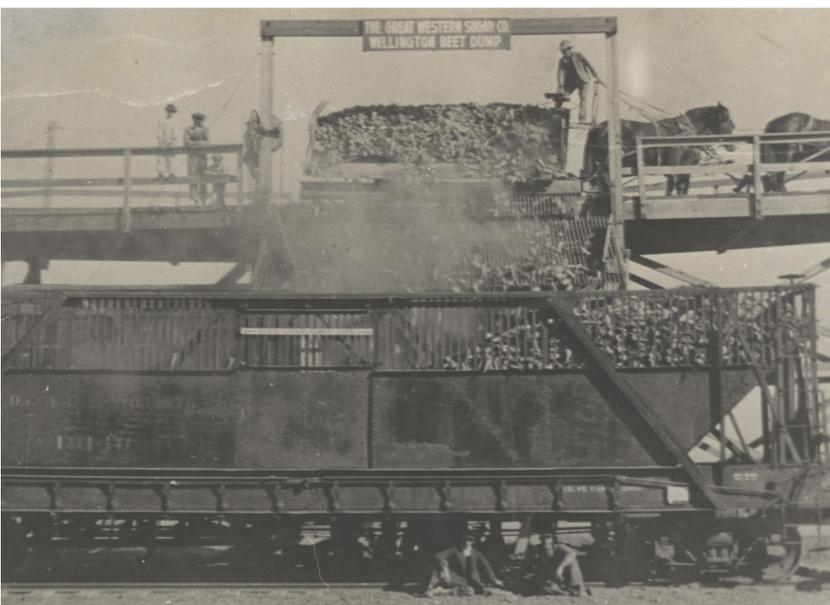

Sugar Beet Factory under construction circa 1902.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H08599

Wagons bringing in the sugar beet harvest to the Colorado and Southern Freight Depot, North of Laporte Avenue on Mason Street, circa 1904.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H00257

Wellington beet dump, 1910s.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H13394

NEIGHBORHOOD HISTORY: Germans from Russia

German from Russia family hand-topping sugar beets at the Preston Farm located at the southwest corner of Harmony Road and Country Road 9, circa 1915.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H00687

German from Russia family hand-piling sugar beets at the Preston farm located at the southwest corner of Harmony Road and Country Road 9, circa 1915.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H00157

Rommel Family in front of their beet shack in Fort Collins, October 20, 1915.

Lew Hine Photograph Collection, Library of Congress, LC-DIG-nclc-00363

NEIGHBORHOOD HISTORY: Hispanics

Hispanic beet workers at the Peasley farm south of Harmony Road, circa 1928. Identified in the photo are: (two small boys) Prefecto Montoya and Lee Suniga, row behind boys (left to right) Lasara Suniga, Juan Esparza, Boni Facio, Alejandro Suniga, back row (left to right) Mrs. Montoya & Gregory Suniga.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H00688

Group gardening in Alta Vista neighborhood, 1930s.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, H17795

724 Martinez Street in 1949. This house was constructed in Alta Vista in 1923.

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery, 724Mar49

NEIGHBORHOOD INPUT

What themes should be represented in the neighborhood monuments?

Add your ideas on sticky notes in the space below.

Place Comments Here