- Reports to the Chief of Police.
- Serves in one of three Sworn Divisions of Police Services. Those Divisions include: Patrol, Community & Special Services, and Criminal Investigations.

- Participates in the collaborative executive leadership of the agency while having direct responsibility for the overall planning, direction, budget, coordination, discipline, and evaluation of an assigned Division.
- Is required to serve as the Acting Chief of Police in the absence of the Chief and Deputy Chief.
- Represents the Chief of Police and Police Services at a variety of community meetings and Fort Collins City Council meetings.
- Interacts with other City departments to further City-wide goal accomplishment.
- Leads and coordinates groups on a variety of issues within the Division, Agency, and City.
- Must be able to render credible testimony in judicial and administrative proceedings.
- Must reside within 5 miles of the City limits.

The Community

Located in Northern Colorado, Fort Collins is home to Colorado State University, many technological firms, and an outstanding public-school system. Nestled at the base of the Rocky Mountains, Fort Collins offers exciting recreational opportunities, unique cultural offerings, and is a regional center for employment and shopping.

During the year, live music and entertainment, as well as great local dining, is available throughout the historic downtown area. Fort Collins offers the convenience of a small town with all the amenities of a large city.

This rapidly urbanizing community operates under a sophisticated and comprehensive development plan and is a full-service city offering more than 600 acres of parks and 20 miles of off-street recreation trails. With a population of over 171,000, residents enjoy an average of 300 days of sunshine each year and access to natural areas, golf courses, recreation centers, and public transit. If you are seeking the Colorado lifestyle in a community in which you can reinvent and reinvigorate yourself, then Fort Collins is your city.

The Organization

Fort Collins Police Services is a progressive and professional organization, currently employing 220 officers and 115 civilian staff with a budget in excess of $43 million. Fort Collins Police Services is accredited through the Colorado Association of Chiefs of Police and its communication center is an Accredited Center of Excellence in Emergency Medical Dispatch (EMD) by the International Academies of Emergency Dispatch.

Our vision is to make Fort Collins the safest community in the nation through professional and compassionate police services. We focus on our values of respect, integrity, service, and engagement as we serve the community and promote the safe and equitable treatment of citizens. The City of Fort Collins is a great place to work and is known as an employer of choice to attract, retain, engage, develop, and reward a diverse and competitive workforce to meet the needs of the community now and in the future.
