

CITY OF FORT COLLINS

FOOTHILLS TRAIL

Welcome to the Foothills Trail

The Foothills Trail is 6.8 miles of natural-surface trail, enjoyed by hikers, wildlife watchers, bikers and equestrians. It crosses city, county, state and federal lands, and connects the City's Pineridge, Maxwell and Reservoir Ridge natural areas. Trail markers show you the way.

Bicyclists yield to horses and hikers.
Hikers yield to horses.

The City of Fort Collins Natural Areas and Trails Rangers frequently patrol here. Feel free to ask them about the trails and natural areas.

SAFETY AND STEWARDSHIP

Watch out for rattlesnakes. If you encounter one, stop and slowly back away. Wait for the snake to move out of the way. Warn others in the vicinity.

Keep pets on a hand-held leash at all times. Dog leash law strictly enforced.

Stay on the trail. Horses must stay within 10 feet of the trail.

Bikers and equestrians use caution - you may need to dismount on some sections.

During muddy conditions, walk or ride through the mud to avoid widening the trails.
