

FORT COLLINS SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY GAPS ANALYSIS

The Gaps Analysis report is a comprehensive collection of current data, trends and findings on the housing market and social issue areas in Fort Collins.

The public, businesses, policymakers and service providers are invited to review and utilize the analysis report, which examines the present availability of resources to address existing social service needs in Fort Collins compared with service demand.

View the complete report and executive summary by visiting fcgov.com/socialsustainability/documents

DID YOU KNOW...

Nearly 4,700 residents have an ambulatory disability, the majority of whom are seniors.

21% of all homeowners in Fort Collins cannot afford their monthly housing costs.

Nearly 950 affordable rentals were built in the community since 2012.

More than 1,000 PSD students experienced homelessness throughout the '17 - '18 school year.

Fort Collins has a relatively low poverty rate for a community with a large university presence.

Lack of access to healthy food disproportionately impacts Hispanic households in Fort Collins.

Veterans comprise 13% of persons experiencing homelessness in Fort Collins.

Nicotine use by local youth is reported at 32%, largely driven by e-cigarettes.

The City is developing a framework to benchmark diversity and equity indicators in the community.

fcgov.com/socialsustainability/documents

Auxiliary aids and services are available for persons with disabilities.

City of Fort Collins

20-22469