RECOVERY TO BELLIE

• US Forest Service Burned Area Emergency Response (BAER) Report

- Prioritization and planning of post-fire restoration projects
- · Assessments, design and planning
- Structure/reservoir protection and flood control projects
- Spring runoff
- Water Shortage Watch
- Flash flood/erosion events on river

- Aerial mulching
- Structure/reservoir protection and flood control projects
- Water Shortage Watch
- Flash flood/erosion events on river
- 2022 design begins

October 2021-January 2022

- Treatment evaluation
- 2022 planning
- Funding requests
- Sediment removal upstream of the Poudre River intake began

February 2022

- 2022 treatment design plan completed
- Sediment removal project continued

- Permitting for mulch staging and helicopter landing sites on US Forest Service lands
- Deploy Poudre River water quality alert system
- Sediment removal project completed in March

- Complete aerial mulching on highest priority acres
- Complete 2021 ground erosion control projects
- Start additional new projects as funding allows

