TOUR OF FUTURE POUDE RIVER WHITEWATER PARK, 2-3 P.M.

Join Project Manager Matt Day for a tour of the site of the future Poudre River Whitewater Park. Participants will meet at the parking lot of Northside Azatlan Community Center, near the playground. We will look at the site from the south bank and give an overview of the project. The Poudre River Whitewater Park will offer year-round recreational fun. Located just north of Old Town, kayakers, tubers and kids of all ages will be able to enjoy the Poudre River and all it has to offer. This park will bring the river back to a more natural state and provide safe access to the water.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK PROCLAMATION, 5:30 P.M.

Show your support for volunteerism by attending Mayor Troxell's reading of a proclamation declaring April 15-21 National Volunteer Week in Fort Collins. This will happen before the regularly scheduled City Council Meeting. National Volunteer Week was established in 1974 and has grown exponentially each year, with thousands of volunteer projects and special events scheduled throughout the week. Attend any of the City's events to celebrate the impact of volunteers in your community, and inspire others to serve. Registration is not required for this activity, but by clicking "sign up" you will receive a reminder and updates about this program. Sign up for updates by visiting fcgov.com/volunteer or clicking here: <https://engage.fcgov.com/ActivityRegistration/89c13ddf-7679-4321-b7d9-e0c60e4cc4b9>
